

Invitation

We are honored to invite you to attend the 3rd International Conference on Music Therapy “Music Therapy, where to? Steps towards a Romanian Model”

The conference held by Transilvania University of Braşov between November 24th - 25th, 2017, brings together Romanian and foreign speakers from international and national scientific research environment, universities and professional organizations.

It is an opportunity to present new ideas and results in research, discussions and exchanges of experience in music therapy.

The main topics include the development of music therapy in Romania, professional practice and new trends in research. Therefore, the program is divided in two sections, one of presentations that could be followed by a paper publication, and the second one of workshops.

Registration will be done at the front desk, each morning starting with 9:00 am.
